

How many days were you closed for testing in 2013-2014?

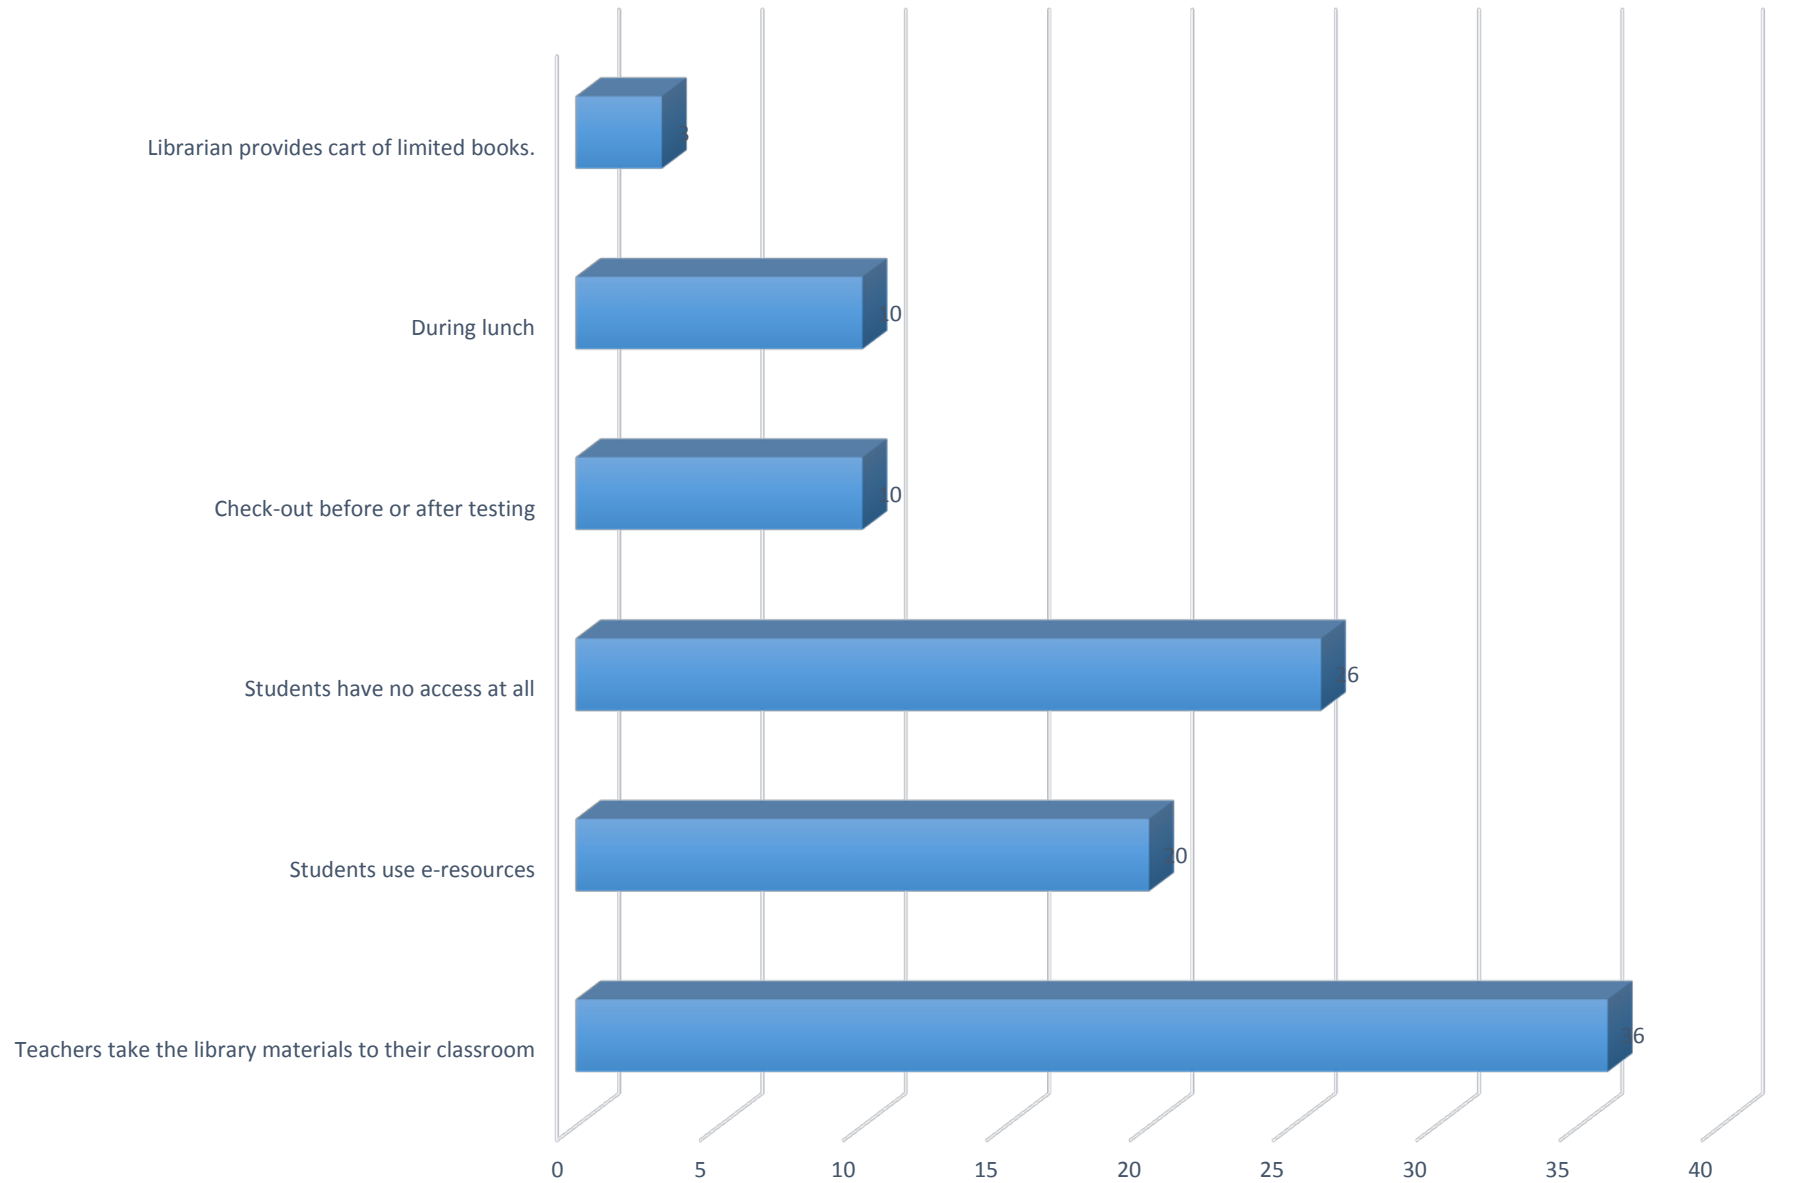

Which tests were given in your library during 2013-2014?

What are your duties during testing in your library?

How do students have access to your library materials during the closure?

How do teachers have access to the library during testing?

